

Stakeholder Map

Following the example provided, complete the white boxes by filling in the key motivators and concerns for each stakeholder based on their priorities and role in the company. Then, copy and paste one of the following icons and place in the space provided to prioritize stakeholder input into three categories:

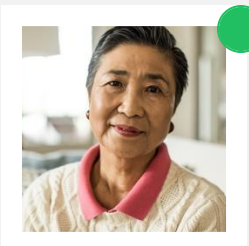

Daniel
Head of Sales

Motivators

- Expand customer base to increase sales
- Offer competitive purchasing options
- Easy-to-sign agreement process

Concerns

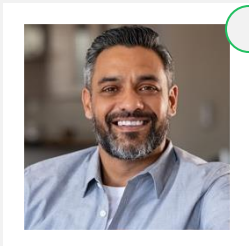

- Impact of delayed revenue on sales goals
- Extended time between purchases during repayment period
- Time to train sales team members

Elie
Chief Financial Officer

- Long-term profitability and sustainable growth
- Competitive market positioning
- Revenue stability and predictability

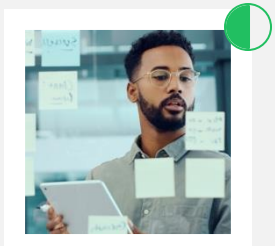

- Risk of customer defaults impacting cash flow
- Increased operational and interest expenses
- Potential impact on profit margins

Raj
Chief Technology Officer

- Efficient technological integration
- Data security and system reliability
- Scalability and seamless customer experience

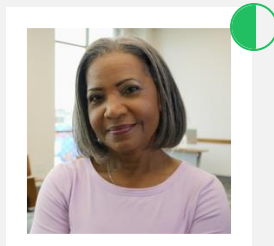

- Complexity of integrating installment financing systems
- Data privacy concerns with managing financial details
- Resource allocation and IT support demands

Michael
Chief Marketing Officer

- Positive brand perception
- Enhanced customer loyalty and satisfaction
- Competitive differentiation through appealing customer offers

- Impact of financing on premium brand image
- Customer concerns of hidden fees or costs
- Communication strategy clarity and transparency

Asha
Chief Operating Officer

- Operational efficiency and streamlined processes
- Optimized resource management
- Enhanced customer service standards.

- Increased complexity of payment management processes
- Potential impact on supply chain and inventory planning
- Disruptions to ongoing operations